OFFICIAL COMMUNICATION Notice of Suspension

Bro. Terry Dickerson
Capitol Hill Lodge #251

Greetings Brother Terry Dickerson,

I pen this communication to inform you that due to acts of insubordination and conduct contrary to the lawful authority and harmony of the Nashville Masonic District, I have determined that disciplinary action is necessary to preserve the peace, order, and dignity of the Craft.

Specifically, it has been determined that you have engaged in actions demonstrating willful disobedience toward the lawful directives and authority of the District Deputy Grand Master and the established leadership structure of this Jurisdiction.

Due to the serious nature of these actions, you are hereby suspended from Capitol Hill Lodge #251 and all Masonic engagement and participation effective immediately as of June 2, 2026, by Order of DDGM Chad Ivie, pending Masonic Trial. You will be contacted within the next ninety days with the date, time and location of said Masonic Trial.

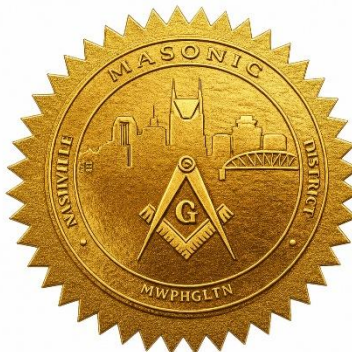

During the period of suspension, you are prohibited from:

- Attending any stated, called, emergent, or special lodge meetings.
- Participating in any district, lodge, or affiliated Prince Hall Masonic functions or activities.
- Voting, debating, or engaging in lodge business matters.
- Representing yourself in any official or unofficial capacity on behalf of your Lodge, the District, or this Jurisdiction.
- Entering any tiled Masonic assembly or exercising the rights and privileges of a Mason in good standing.

You are expected to comply fully with this order and conduct yourself accordingly.

I remain

District Deputy Grand Master Chad Ivie, 33<sup>o</sup>
Nashville Masonic District
